No. PA(MD/PPRA)2019
GOVERNMENT OF THE PUNJAB
PUNJAB PROCUREMENT REGULATORY
AUTHORITY, S&GAD
3rd Floor, Al-falah Building, Mall Road, Lahore.

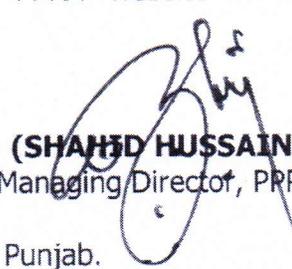

Dated Lahore, 15th April, 2019

CIRCULAR

PPRA is being frequently approached through a letter with the request to upload the status of blacklisting of contractor/supplier/consultant as and when blacklisted by the organization. Since blacklisting is a proceeding under section-17A read with Rule-21 of PPRA Law/Rules hence a proper order to blacklist any delinquent on account of non-accomplishment of obligation is required to be issued with a copy to PPRA.

2. It has been observed and is consistently being conveyed to the procuring agency to always provide copy of the order along with the letter to PPRA so that on the basis of proper evidence the firm/contractor/supplier/consultant status as blacklisted could be displayed on PPRA website.

3. PPRA stance and requirement is being reiterated with the request that whenever procuring agency declare the contractor/firm/supplier/consultant blacklisted it should be in proper order form which must be provided to PPRA so that status of the firm/supplier/contractor/consultant could be displayed on PPRA website for the information convenience to all the public sector organization.
